Paradisologue is a collaborative work by choreographer Akiko Kitamura, composer Yusuke Awazu and video artist Akihiko Kaneko. This piece must give a different impression to the audience who is familiar with the past works of Leni-Basso. Because Paradisologue is very humorous though remain cool and stylish. In this piece Akiko Kitamura is giving a very strange and humorous picture of the daily life of the people who are brainwashed by an unidentifiable ruler who is like Dr. Mabuse but looks like just a goldfish. Yusuke Awazu, whose talent is admired by Ryuichi Sakamoto, wrote a variety of original music for the piece
